THE EUREKA RIOT.

For some time past trouble has been apprehended from the coal burners of Eureka. The base ores of the district require smelting for their reduction, and the furnaces consume a large quantity of charcoal, which is the principal item of expense. The cost of working has been so great that, coupled with the diminished and poorer quality of ore, the mining companies recently announced that if the price of coal was not lowered they would have to send their ore to San Francisco for reduction. The present situation of affairs is explained by a dispatch in another column. That the trouble is serious is shown by the following appeal to the Governor for aid, received at Carson yesterday afternoon:

EUREKA, Aug. 11.—To His Excellency John H. Kinkead, Governor of the State of Nevada: We respectfully represent to your Excellency that a large body of the residents of Eureka county, Nevada, known as the Coal Burners' Association, numbering about two thousand persons, are now banded together, and with arms in their possession are defying the civil authorities and refusing to allow any of their number to be arrested. They now hold forcible possession of many coal pits in the county, by force have prevented and are now preventing the owners of charcoal from hauling it to the furnaces, and are threatening to destroy other property and to burn the town. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of parties and the arrest has been resisted by the rioters, who are organized under the command of desperate leaders. We therefore respectfully ask your Excellency to order the military of the Second Brigade into active service to quell such insurrection, and we ask for immediate action herein.

B. J. TURNER,
 Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners.
 MATTHEW KYLE,
 Sheriff of Eureka County, Nevada.

In response, the Governor sent the following order:
 Brigadier General George M. Sablin, Commanding Second Brigade N. S. M., Eureka, Nevada:—Sir: The Sheriff and Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of Eureka county have telegraphed me that the county authorities are unable to suppress a riot in Eureka county and to enforce the laws. If their statement is warranted by the facts of the case, you will call into active service all the force of your brigade necessary to aid the law officers in the proper execution of the laws and for the protection of citizens and their property. Report to me promptly your action and the condition of affairs.

JOHN H. KINKEAD,
 Governor and Commander-in-Chief.
 The disturbance created by the rioters we hope will be promptly suppressed. The coal burners, strong in numbers and in organization, are disposed to carry matters with a high hand. Not content with controlling their own labor, they have interfered with the liberty of their men, and with the sacred rights of property. It is a movement that should be stamped out, and the ready action of the Governor deserves commendation.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

What a delightful degree of freedom the Kansas editor enjoys. Col. O. T. Porter is owner of both the Harrisburg Nucleus and the Junction City Republican. Not long ago he felt that he needed a rest, so he notified his readers of his intention to go into the mountains, announced that he would probably be back in a month, then closed up both offices and off he went.

TROUBLE AT EUREKA.

Strike of the Coal-Burners. The militia ordered out.

(Special to the Enterprise.)
 EUREKA, August 11.—The Coal-burners Association are on the war-path. They have about 2000, and are mostly Italians. They are making charcoal for the furnaces, about thirty miles north of Eureka. Lately a strike was organized by the burners for 30 cents a bushel, and the furnaces were unwilling to pay more than 25 cents. The burners finally became defiant, and interposed with violence to prevent the teams from the furnaces loading. The sacks of coal were emptied and the teams ordered back to town. The burners proved too strong for the Sheriff's posse to-day, and the authorities have telegraphed to the Governor to call out the militia of this division. The Governor has just answered, directing the three companies here to go to the front. They will leave by special train to-night. Further developments will be reported as fast as they transpire.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

A Tribune's Washington special says: The Department of Agriculture will publish, in connection with its forthcoming report, information received from every county in the Union, regarding the rate of wages paid to farm laborers and cost of living.

Harry Maune, aged 16, and Joseph Ingraham, aged 17, left their homes at Westfield, N. J., yesterday for Leadville, with 100 pounds of shot, a keg of powder, several rifles and revolvers and $200 in money, to scalp the Indians and slaughter the buffalo.

A Galveston special says: At Weimar, yesterday, Ben Coleman (white), who was intoxicated, rode up to a wagon driven by Jose Costello, a Mexican, and ordered the latter to dismount. Upon his refusal to obey Coleman drew a revolver and shot him dead.

Baldwin was taken to Los Angeles, and will have a preliminary examination to-morrow.

A Rockwall (Texas) dispatch says: There are reports from Titus county to the effect that Jeff Hopkins outraged a white woman, then murdered her and her infant, and set fire to the house to conceal the crime. The charred skeletons of the woman and child were found in the ruins. Four bullet holes were found in the woman's backbone.

A New York telegram says the police yesterday, while watching the penitentiary guard-boat, saw the crew of two convicts leap overboard, and being strong swimmers escaped. Soon after the police discovered the keeper hopelessly drunk in the bottom of the boat. Later the police saw the guard-boat overturned, and putting out into the river captured the crew, who were endeavoring to escape by swimming. They also rescued the keeper who, though drunk, was clinging to the bottom of the boat.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Record states that the crops about Panaca are looking well.

Since the Panacas got the balls and bats they do nothing but play base ball, and the Pioche Record was informed by a gentleman who has been spending a week at Panaca that the boys of that settlement have become excellent players.

The ranchers are now getting plenty of rain says the Record, it having been raining off and on for the past week in all the different valleys surrounding Pioche, giving much satisfaction to stock owners and others. A very nice little rain and hail storm visited Pioche Tuesday afternoon, but on Wednesday we had a glorious rain.

About four o'clock on Sunday afternoon Carson was thrown into commotion by the blowing of locomotive whistles, and soon the fire bell rang out an alarm. The fire was found to be in the barn belonging to Mrs. Fife, situated in the northwestern part of town. The fire boys were quickly on hand and they soon quenched the flames. The fire is supposed to have been caused by boys playing with matches about the premises.

Leading members of the Piute tribe have issued an order for a big fandang to be held at this place next week, says the Winnemucca Silver State. Couriers have been sent to Wadsworth, Reno, Carson and Virginia in western Nevada, to Stillwater in Churchill county, to Austin in Lander county, and to McDermitt and other points in northern Nevada. The Shoshones have been invited to meet with the Piutes and state their grievances and their reasons for ordering the fandang and council will be held on the Humboldt bottom, below town.

Sunday afternoon, says the Carson Tribune, shortly after five o'clock, as the Reno train drew up at the Carson depot, General Batterman's team, which was standing near by, took fright and started off at a break-neck speed. The General, who was on the ground at the time, grabbed the lines, but was thrown headlong in the dust, and did not succeed in checking the runaway. The team brought up at the station without injury to anything but the vehicle attached, the pole of which was broken. The General was not hurt by his fall.

The throttle valve of an engine exploded on the Sacramento and Valleys road on Sunday, and a night train was delayed as fast as they transpire.

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

Nine large new buildings are going up in Mammoth City.

The youngsters of Nevada City have formed a new fire company.

An insane Swede killed himself at Astoria on the 7th by hanging.

The new bathhouse of J. R. Whetton, at Santa Cruz, was burned on the 10th. Insured.

Emigrants are flocking into the city every day, and many of them are locating in Idaho.

The State Agricultural Society at Sacramento has put up a $1800 purse for a trotting match, free for all.

Fish Commissioner B. B. Redding writes to the Mammoth City Herald that the Commissioners will stock the lakes in Lake District with McCloud River trout next year.

The stage leaving Phenix, Arizona, on the 8th, bound south, was robbed three miles from town by one man. The express box only was taken. This is the fourth robbery in the same place in four months.

Thomas Wendell, editor and proprietor of the Vallejo Chronicle, died in that city on the 9th, of Bright's disease. He was aged thirty-two, unmarried, and had been connected with the paper for eight years.

Heavy rains in the desert east of Yuma caused the ditching of the Southern Pacific train a few days ago, killing several Indians, and injuring the engineer and fireman. The train due at Los Angeles on the 9th, collided with the east-bound train on the Colorado desert on the same day. No details.

The hoisting works of the Yuba Gravel Mining Co., situated a short distance below Timbuctoo, on the Main Yuba, were destroyed by fire on Thursday night last. The fire originated by the burning of the woods and brush close by. Everything was done to try and check the raging element, but the building could not be saved. Some of the timbers were taken out and saved, but the loss will be about $5000. The Union could not learn that there was any insurance on the works. Most of the stock of the company was owned by Grass Valley people.

A Walk to Steamboat.

From the Virginia Stage.

Last Saturday Grant Israel and Ned Norton, having a touch of the pedestrian fever, bet Frank Lewis $20 that they would walk to Steamboat Springs. About 1 o'clock in the afternoon, when the sun was hotter than blue blazes, they struck out, and nothing further was heard of them until this morning, when the express train arrived. Hoping to get a good item out of their Steamboat pilgrimage, a Stage reporter hopped on to Grant Israel as the latter hopped off the cars, and asked him whether they had really walked to the Springs. With a peculiar chuckle, Grant replied: "Well, I should say we didn't. We had a hard game of it getting to the brewery on the Geiger Grade. Norton began to weaken before we got off of street, but I braced him up by telling him what a treat there was in store for us, and finally we reached the brewery, where we remained until evening, when, as luck would have it, an empty hay wagon came along and we got aboard, making Steamboat about 9 o'clock at night."

THE CALEDONIAN PICNIC.

Too Hot for Comfort—The Trip on the Cars—Some Laughterable Incidents of the Games.

The picnic at Carson last Saturday was attended by about sixty people from Reno. The trip was intensely hot for those who remained inside of the cars. But to some who climbed up among the pines on the top of the box cars it was pleasant. The pines, after all, enjoy riding on the rail more than the whites. They stay out where they catch the breeze and see the country. The familiar journey to Carson takes one through a beautiful country at this season. The Truckee Meadows, Pleasant, Washoe and Carson valleys are all fresh and green now, with ripening crops. The view of Carson Valley from the top of a car, high up on the mountain, is exceedingly fine. It gives at first sight the very best impression of Carson that can be had. Arrived at the grounds, every body seemed bent on eating something. Eating, in fact, was actively going on all through the day, between the intervals of drinking. It was hot—very hot. Dancing was kept up in the hall with a complete indifference to the state of the temperature. The rides popped away incessantly at the targets. It is about as dull an entertainment—watching target shooting—as could be found for a man who does not use a rifle.

THE ATHLETIC GAMES

In the afternoon would have been highly interesting had it not been so hot. They came off inside a rope-enclosed space in the open field. Near the middle of the day few could stand the heat therefor more than a few minutes. So there were two streams of people constantly passing to and fro between the ring and the shady park, the baked and the half-baked. A German, whom the sun had driven to the shelter of the trees, found on looking over the programme, that he missed seeing "Tossing Caber." He didn't know what a caber is, but had an idea that the spectacle must have been highly attractive. All through the day he continued to murmur his regrets that he not see "Tossing caber." The most entertaining contest was the race for girls. About thirty contestants ranged in line awaiting the word "go." Among them were several ladies, whose claim to the appellation of "girl," however good it might have been in the past, had become very slight with the progress of time. These old girls, ranging from thirty to fifty years of age, were ruled out by the judges. The favorite was a tall, pretty lass in pink stockings; she made a fine run, but failed to win. They all removed their shoes to keep from slipping on the dry grass. The race occasioned a great fluttering display of variegated hosiery, in which over fifty funny legs were scrambling for the goal. A race for women over fifty was next in order, but no woman over fifty could be found on the grounds. Almost all women past aging at forty, none past forty-five. Three old boys of fifty contested a race. They made a lively heat, and at the finish the winner fell over the judge and both went to grass, followed by the field, with scorer, marker and assistants piled up on top of each other in one confused heap, like the slain after a battle. The finish was heartily enjoyed by the spectators. The Reno picnicers left the grounds early to catch the down train for home.

One of Cain's Stories.

To enliven his argument in the Justice's court last evening, Lawyer Cain related an anecdote which excited the risibilities of all present, and that bears rather hard upon a certain class of mock-modest people. This is the story: Some New England ladies had observed that it was the custom of the boys to bathe in a certain retired spot on the shore, half a mile away from any house. In order to satisfy themselves that there was nothing improper in the practice, they went to an observatory near by, where there was a powerful telescope, and brought it to bear upon the inoffensive youths on the shore. As each looked through the glass she threw up her hands in horror, with such exclamations as "Oh! how shocking!" "It must be stopped!" "What an indecent exhibition!" etc.

Work to be Resumed.

The iron braces for Cunningham & Winchel's and Sunderland's new buildings on Virginia street, were received yesterday. Work on the buildings has been delayed through the want of them. The work will now go forward rapidly, and soon two handsome two-story new buildings will add to the appearance of Virginia street.

WHY STAY POOR?

Prospecting often Pays; Idleness never.
The millions of the Comstock were a lucky find. Worthless looking rock is often rich in treasure. At Leadville a simple assayer made millions of dollars. Other bonanzas were least suspected until the coming of some unknown man. Who is he?
At Virginia City, Nevada, assays for Gold and Silver are made at $1.00 per sample, by CONRAD WIEGAND, formerly the Supervising Assayer of the U. S. Mint at San Francisco.
The mail will carry ore samples to his office for one cent per ounce.
Reports which may be relied on absolutely, come back by return mail, or result are telegraphed when ordered so.
All costs, delays and risks in remitting money are avoided by the purchase of our Dollar Remittance Tickets, which pay for all work done in our establishment.
We sell these remittance tickets at a discount, when $5 worth of more are ordered at one time.
Small sacks for mailing ore samples also for sale at a nominal price.
